Ashton Community Trust in partnership with The Nerve Centre

wish to employ the following positions;

Fab Lab Manager & Fab Lab Technician

Fab Lab is a concept developed by the Centre for Bits and Atoms at Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT). Fab Lab's (Fabrication Laboratories) effectively allow individuals across a very wide spectrum of skills and abilities to design and build almost anything that they can imagine. At the practical level this means that users and beneficiaries are empowered to create and build items from self powering radio's to laptop computers to furniture right through to the fabrication of entire houses.

It is proposed under to develop a Fab Lab for Northern Ireland, split over two sites in Belfast and Derry~Londonderry, and networked internationally, to deliver the empowering potential of the Fab Lab concept directly into our communities.

For further details including job criteria and application pack contact Kelly Burns in writing enclosing an A4 SAE to Ashton Centre, 5 Churchill Street, Belfast BT15 2BP or by e-mailing kelly@ashtoncentre.com stating which position you wish to apply for:

Fab Lab Manager (Belfast site) ACT Fab-Lab Manager-001

Fab Lab Technician (Belfast site) ACT Fab-Lab Tech – 001
